

The International Center for Policy and Conflict

The International Center for Policy and Conflict (ICPC) is non-profit and non-partisan organisation founded in 2005 to create a platform to foster democratic, peaceful, secure and just societies in Africa and globally. The Great Lakes and Horn of Africa region which have experienced widespread political instability for decades is the ICPC major focus. The Center is registered in Kenya under the Trustees (Perpetual Succession) Act Chapter 164.

a). Vision

To create a democratic and peaceful states accountable to the people.

b). Mission

To advance the course of transitional justice, conflict resolution and promote human security.

c). Goal

To promote the principles of justice, accountability, respect for rule of law and sustainable human security among the people of Kenya and the region

d). Values

- Accountability and transparency
- Gender equity
- Professionalism
- Performance reporting
- People-centeredness and respect

e). Objectives

1. To promote accountability, deepen culture of justice and respect for human rights;
2. To end the culture of impunity and establish the rule of law;
3. To develop a usable past by breaking cycles of repression and assists in institutional and societal reform;
4. To pursue accountability for human rights abuse and economic crimes;
5. To push for reparations for victims, and facilitating reconciliation processes;
6. To create understanding of transitional justice, post-conflict reconstruction and development;
7. To track and monitor the transitional justice process and outcomes;
8. To research and monitor mechanisms in transiting societies and offer policy guidance;
9. To develop exchange programmes with local, regional and international societies;
10. To create a reliable regional transitional justice and human security focal point.
11. To do all such things that are incidental to/or conducive to the attainment of any of the above objectives.

g). Programmes

ICPC broad programs are as follows;

- Transitional Justice
- Conflict Resolution and Peace-building
- Capacity Building and Technical Assistance
- Human Security and Displacement
- Gender Justice Programme